23.2.7. Ground 15: the condition of the Apartment, the furniture and/or the appliances provided by the Landlord has deteriorated because it has been misused, neglected or damaged due to the Tenant, any Additional Occupant or their Visitors;

23.2.8. Ground 16: the property was let to the tenant as part of his/her employment with the Landlord and the tenant is no longer employed by the Landlord and the property is needed for another employee.

23.2.9. Ground 17: the Landlord gave the Tenancy to the Tenant after the Tenant or a person acting on the Tenant's behalf gave false information. If any of these conditions apply to the Tenant, the Landlord may re-enter the Premises and the Tenancy will end.

23.3. However, if any of these conditions apply and the Tenant is living in the Premises, we will not repossess the Premises without getting a court order first. Any action the Landlord takes to repossess the Premises will not restrict or limit any other legal rights the Landlord or the Tenant may have.

23.4. The Effect of Termination for any of the actions covered by the clause above will be to end the Tenancy Period but will not release the Tenant from any outstanding obligations and the Tenant will be liable for the outstanding Rent and any Payments due.

23.5. Should the Tenant wish to leave the Property prior to the end of the Tenancy, the Tenant shall still remain liable for the Rent of the Premises during any period within the Tenancy when the property is not occupied by a replacement Tenant.

24. END OF TENANCY

24.1. The Housing Act 1988 states that the Landlord must give the Tenant at least two months' notice in writing to retrieve the Apartment at the end of the fixed term of the Tenancy. The notice the Landlord serves cannot end before the end of the fixed term shown in the Tenancy Agreement accepted by the Tenant using their Online System Account to form this Tenancy Agreement. The Tenant must leave the Apartment at the end of the notice period which will be considered the Tenancy End Date.

24.2. The Protection from Eviction Act 1977 protects the Tenant from the Landlord ending the Tenancy immediately. The Landlord must get a court order to repossess the Premises if the Tenant breaks the Tenancy and/or fails to put right or sort out the problem in a reasonable time.

24.3. The Tenant's Notice:

24.3.1. The Tenant must give the Landlord at least two months' notice in writing when they want to end the Tenancy at the end of the fixed term. The notice must not end before the last date of the Tenancy;

24.3.2. The Tenant will still be legally responsible for paying the Rent and for all other responsibilities under this agreement until the notice ends and they have moved out of the Premises.

24.4. The Landlord's Notice:

24.4.1. The Landlord must give the Tenant at least two months' notice in writing under Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 to bring the Tenancy to an end at the end of the fixed term of the Tenancy;

24.4.2. The notice must not end before the last date of the Tenancy. The Tenant will still be legally responsible for paying the Rent and for all other responsibilities under this agreement until the notice ends and the Tenant has moved out of the Premises;

24.5. Just before or immediately after the Tenancy ends, the Tenant must give the Landlord their new forwarding address so that the Landlord can contact the Tenant after the Tenant has left the Premises in order to return the Tenant's Deposit or part of it (this will depend on any charges the Landlord has had to take from the Tenant's Deposit because the Tenant has, for example, damaged part of the Property);

24.6. The Tenant must allow the Landlord to give this forwarding address to the providers including, but not limited to: council tax authority and any suppliers of electricity, fuel, water, heating and hot water, telephone services, environmental services or other similar services at the Premises the Tenant arranged whilst living in the apartment and is responsible for.

24.7. It is the Tenant's responsibility:

24.7.1. To return the Apartment, the Contents and all of the keys/fobs and parking permits relating to the Apartment and the Building and the Grounds to the Landlord at the end of the Tenancy Agreement, in the same condition as recorded on the inventory with reasonable consideration for wear and tear and, by no later than 5 pm on the day the Tenancy ends.

24.7.2. To clear all personal belongings and rubbish/waste from the Apartment, failing which, the Landlord shall be under no duty of care towards any belongings left behind and the Landlord will be free to dispose of them as the Landlord sees fit without any liability to the Tenant, Additional Occupants and/or Visitors of the Apartment;

24.7.3. To make sure that any refuse/waste is disposed of in the external bins in the Bin Store provided for the purpose;

24.7.4. To remove any bulky personal items from the Premises and the Grounds before the Tenancy ends.

24.7.5. If the Landlord is required to deal with any arrangements for removal of any rubbish or personal belongings, the Tenant will be liable for any removal costs.

24.7.6. The Tenant will be liable to pay the full costs of repairing any damage caused by the Tenant, Additional Occupants and/or their visitors and to pay any reasonable Landlord's administration costs. A reasonable allowance for "wear and tear" will be made when assessing repair costs.

24.7.7. The Tenant must make sure that the whole Apartment and all of its external areas including the main entrance and the balcony/terrace are thoroughly cleaned including (but not limited to):

24.7.7.1. All fixtures and fittings such as shower traps, light fittings;

24.7.7.2. Shower & kitchen tiles;

24.7.7.3. Silicone, grout white and without mould or discolouration;

24.7.7.4. Appliances (inside and out);

24.7.7.5. Tops, inside and outside of cupboards;

24.7.7.6. All worktops & surfaces;

24.7.7.7. Fridges & freezers (clean, emptied & defrosted)

24.7.7.8. Furniture (inside and out).

24.7.8. The Tenant must ensure all the above is cleaned thoroughly before the end of the Tenancy.

24.7.9. Any cleaning beyond a standard light End of Tenancy clean will be charged from the Tenant's deposit.

24.7.10. The Tenant must ensure that they have emptied their post box before departure and are responsible for making arrangements for the mail to be forwarded to their new address. The Landlord will not forward any of the mail and will not in any way be held liable for any issues related to mis-delivered mail.

24.7.11. Where charges at the end of Tenancy exceed the Tenant's Deposit, the Landlord will invoice any additional costs to the Tenant. The Tenant will have to make a Payment for these charges within 7 days.

25. AGREEMENTS AND DECLARATIONS

25.1. It is agreed between the Landlord and the Tenant that, if:

25.1.3. Any of the grounds set out in the Housing Act 1988 Schedule 2 Grounds 2, 6, 8, 10-15 (inclusive), and 17 apply;

25.2. Then the Landlord may apply for a Court Order stating that the Landlord shall repossess the Apartment as if the Tenancy Agreement has not been granted. If the Court Order is granted
